Authors and publishers who wish to have reviews or notices of their works published in The Arkansas Family Historian are invited to submit a copy of the work with ordering information and price, if applicable.
Summer is here and many of us will be taking off on genealogical research trips. Sometimes I wonder if all the cities and states visited by genealogists doing research realize how much money we're pumping into their economy; if they did, they might start promoting genealogy more -- by upgrading their archives, libraries, and courthouses, and by producing brochures containing the type of information genealogists want to know.

If you don't have a research trip planned, I hope you'll give it some thought. You'll be amazed at how much fun and how productive it is, especially if you team up with one or more other genealogists. There are so many records that simply aren't easily accessible to you unless you go to them... and there is simply nothing to compare with trodding the very ground where grandma and grandpa lived.

Of course, getting the most out of a research trip involves planning. Before you go, contact the libraries, archives, and courthouses you would like to visit, and ask the pertinent questions -- hours of operation, any holidays that may be coming up, directions, where to park, what kind of change the copy machine takes, whether reservations are required for readers, etc. If you have time, you can write (don't forget the S.A.S.E.); but if you're in a hurry, just telephone and take notes.

Be sure to pick up highway maps for the area you're going to visit, and write away for county maps for your counties of interest. These county maps show the little county roads -- just the ones you'll probably be traveling on to get to that little cemetery in the backwoods where all your family is buried! These maps also usually show the locations of small communities and cemeteries that don't appear on other maps. If you don't know where to write for them, the March issue of the Professional Genealogists of Arkansas Newsletter ($2.00 for the back issue, P.O. Box 1807, Conway, AR 72032) printed a complete list of addresses for ordering these inexpensive maps from each state. They're usually sold by the state Department of Transportation.

If your files are like mine, you'll need to weed out a lot of your notes if you don't want to have to rent a trailer to tow behind your car! Often, I simply create a new file for each surname, label it "Research File," and only put in the necessary documents to expedite research on my trip. A large post-it note inside the cover of each of these folders is an excellent place to make a few notes about what you need to search.

Don't forget your camera (from past personal experience, I suggest you might also need to toss in the instruction manual for your camera!) and a pocketful of change for the photocopiers.

But even if you don't do any advance planning, you can have a great time. I must confess that last summer, a friend and I were stressed out and anxious to get away; so we just grabbed some files, waved goodbye to our families, and headed for Tennessee without any kind of plan. We had a wonderful trip anyway!

When you get home, gather up your new information and write it up for your genealogy cousins that were stuck at home, and perhaps even for a publication that might be interested -- like The Arkansas Family Historian.

Frances Hook Jernigan, 52 Colony Road, Little Rock, AR 72207

Frances Hook Jernigan, a seventh generation Arkansan, is a native of Batesville, Arkansas. She is a graduate of the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville, and was an English teacher in Fort Smith and Little Rock.

A love for genealogy has led to membership in the Daughters of the American Revolution, Daughters of the American Colonists, Colonial Dames of the Seventeenth Century, Magna Charta Dames, Daughters of 1812, Arkansas Pioneers Association, and the Arkansas Genealogical Society, which she serves as recording secretary.

In addition to her church, she is active in the Little Rock Departmental Club, the P. E. O. Sisterhood, the Civil War Round Table, Zeta Tau Alpha Alumnae, and the Little Rock Arts Center, where she volunteers as a docent. She and her husband Keith share an avid interest in history and travel, as well as four children and five grandchildren.

Wensil Marsh (Mrs. Larry P.) Clark, 1211 Biscayne Drive, Little Rock, AR 72207

Wensil was born and raised in Little Rock, Pulaski County, Arkansas. She first became a member of AGS in 1972, and has been a very active since then, serving now as Herald. She is also active with voluntary work in Arkansas Pioneers, D.A.R. and the school activities of her grandchildren. She is at present involved with planning the 50 year reunion of Little Rock High School Class of 1941. Wensil and Larry have three children and six grandchildren.

Wensil credits her grandparents, "Chub" and Emma Hardcastle and Zula Marsh for her interest in genealogy and, as most of us do, she wishes she had recorded some of the stories they told her in her childhood.

She was the motivating force in publishing ARKANSAS PIONEERS AND ALLIED FAMILIES, Volume I, in 1976, and the first printing was immediately sold out. She has also published the 1890 White County, AR, tax list as the reconstructed census.

Lynda Childers Suffridge, 3801 Caraway Ct., North Little Rock, AR 72116

Lynda serves as Historian for AGS. She works part-time in the Research Room at the Arkansas History Commission. She is a graduate of the University of Arkansas with a B.S.E., and an M.S.E. in Physical Education. She is married to Dr. Buford Suffridge, an orthodontist in North Little Rock. They have three sons: Calvin, Phillip and J. B. Linda is currently serving as President of the Pulaski County Chapter of Arkansas Pioneers. She is past president of North Little Rock Heritage Seekers. In addition to belonging to these two organizations, she is a member of the National Genealogical Society, the Daughters of the American Revolution, the United Daughters of the Confederacy, Professional Genealogists of Arkansas, the Genealogical Society of Old Tyron County, North Carolina, the Dallas, TX, Genealogical Society, and the Giles County, TN, Genealogical Society. She has completed two courses at Samford University's Institute of Genealogical and Historical Research: Course Level II, Intermediate Studies in Genealogy and Historical Research, and Course Level IV, Advanced Methodology. This summer she will be taking Course Level VI, American Wars and Their Records. Following a three week research trip to Scotland last year, she lectured to several organizations about researching Scottish records. This summer Lynda will be researching in Ireland and hopes to share her Irish research experiences.
Surname Directory Correction: Duplicate Submitter No. 0287 appears; No. 0277 should be assigned Kenneth Shulte, P. O. Box 762, Barstow, CA 92312; No. 0287 is for Dorothy Horn Bevard, as shown.

News Release from Central Arkansas Library System, 700 Louisiana, Little Rock, AR: Extended Library Hours!! Effective March 4, 1991, the library hours have been extended to include Mondays. The Genealogy Room service hours will be Mondays through Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. and Sundays from 1 to 5 p.m. "The idea was to expand the service and extend hours not only for local patrons, but also for genealogists from out of town who travel to Little Rock to use our collection," said Philip Jones, head of the Reference Department at CALS.

This is certainly good news and our members will want to take advantage of this facility.

There are new Confederate Records at the Arkansas History Commission, One Capitol Mall, Little Rock, AR.

Index to Compiled Service Records of Confederate Soldiers Who Served in Units Raised Directly by the Confederate Government and Confederate and Staff Officers, and Non-Regimental Enlisted Men - 26 rolls of 16 mm microfilm. The Federation of Genealogical Societies has announced "An All American Conference" for August 15-17, 1991, Grand Wayne Center, Fort Wayne, Indiana. Cosponsored by Allen County Genealogical Society of Indiana, Inc., and Indiana Genealogical Society, Inc., you can obtain information by writing to Curt Witcher, Allen County Public Library, P. O. Box 2270, Fort Wayne, IN 46801-2270. It promises to be another great conference.

More Microfiche available from Michael Kelsey, 905 Duval, Temple, TX 76501. We announced some time ago that Michael was compiling the genealogical information from The New Orleans Picayune. He has completed the project, covering August 21, 1841 - June 18, 1843, and offers it on microfiche for $7.00. His listing of newspaper abstracts in microform covers several Texas and other papers and is growing.

These are copies of the individual draft registration cards for all men who lived in Arkansas between the ages of 17 and 45 created under the Selective Service Act of 1917. Registration dates were June 5, 1917, and June 5, August 24, and September 12, 1918. Arkansas and Yell Counties are not available. Basic information on each card lists name, address, age, date of birth, race, citizenship, occupation, present employer's name, and place of employment.

Arkansas Genealogical Society has begun offering recognition for descendants of early Arkansas settlers through its Certificates of Arkansas Ancestry program. The certificates are issued in three categories: Territorial (a resident of Arkansas before 15 June 1836); Antebellum (before 6 May 1861); and Nineteenth Century (before 31 December 1900). Anyone may apply for as many certificates as he/she has ancestors which meet the criteria. An application booklet is needed (and the booklet may be photocopied for additional submissions) and can be requested by sending 52¢ in postage (2 ounces first class) to the AGS Certificate Chairman, Desmond Walls Allen, 99 Lawrence Landing Road, Conway, AR 72032. The charge for a certificate is $10, payable when the completed application booklet is sent in.

The application process isn't difficult, it just takes some time to get all the materials together from research notes and group sheets to fill in the information requested. Like a lineage society's application, applicants are asked to write their ancestral line's members down from themselves back to the early Arkansas ancestor. A family group sheet type form is provided in the application booklet to record information about the immediate family of the early Arkansas ancestor. No copies of original source documents are required for these parts of the application, only the citations to the records from which the information was taken. The last part of the application is proof (and a copy of a source document is needed) of the ancestor's residence in Arkansas. A variety of possible proofs are suggested in the booklet.

Response has been excellent for requests for the application booklet but only ten applications have been returned at this time. Future issues of The Arkansas Family Historian will list the names of the people to whom certificates were issued and the names of their early Arkansas ancestors. Why the slow submission rate? It sounds a lot easier to do than it actually is. The certificate application requires work and thought on the part of the submitter. (But then, if this was easy, we wouldn't have that feeling of accomplishment when we finished, would we?) All of the blanks on the application form need not be completed. The idea is to organize and assemble the known information - not go on a fact-hunting mission. We know we have many proficient researchers working on Arkansas lines - we aren't planning on backtracking your research, we're only reading the information submitted to spot any possible errors (65-year-old new mothers or 4-year-old fathers, for example).

The current issue of Everton's Genealogical Helper magazine carried an advertisement for our certificate program. We're trying to inform non-AGS members about the project and encourage them to join us! (Membership in AGS isn't necessary to get a certificate, but we want those folks to know about the rewards and benefits of belonging to AGS.) We're also publicizing our certificate program through National Genealogical Society's Genealogical Projects Registry (see related article in this issue).

Someday, we hope to have enough applications to organize the data and print it. We want to share our research accomplishments with others working on Arkansas lines. Let's show off the quality of our research by requesting a certificate application and filling it out. If you've already requested an application booklet, get busy and record your family information. If you haven't requested an application yet, write now, send postage, and get your copy. If you have questions about completing any part of the booklet, drop me a note and I'll try to answer it.

Are you working on a genealogical project? Perhaps a transcription of county records, an index to a non-indexed source book, newspaper abstracts? National Genealogical Society wants to know about it!

From Kay G. Ingalls, Director, NGS GPR:

"National Genealogical Society invites you to participate in an important program - the Genealogical Projects Registry. Our goal is to have a comprehensive listing of genealogical projects in progress on a nationwide basis. This includes indexing, abstracting, transcribing and the like. The benefits to the genealogical community are many: having a registry of all projects, we will avoid duplication of effort by people starting new projects; we will know if records we need are being worked on; we can see areas where we can volunteer or time or money.

"All the projects will be registered in a database that will be kept current. The database will be published in the NGS Computer Interest Group's Digest, and will be available in a file on the NGS Bulletin Board. The database will consist of projects in progress only; completed projects will be transferred to another database. We hope you will support this program by registering your projects and keeping us apprised of their progress."

A form has been developed for the registration process - write National Genealogical Society, 4527 Seventeenth Street North, Arlington, VA 22207 (SASE please) and request an NGS GPR form.

Though not mentioned by Kay, registration of your project may generate some pre-publication publicity and help sales if you intend to publish and sell your material. Also, someone interested in your subject may have additional information to contribute and you may hear from them before your book is cast in stone. Family histories aren't going to be included in this database, but if this project achieves enough success, perhaps a database will be developed in the future for specific one-family history projects.

When you register a project, you will receive a copy of the current GPR Directory which lists the current projects. The listings are alphabetical by state and county and contain the project name, location, time period, arrangement of the material, type of project, anticipated completion date, content, format and type of source records, hardware and software (if used), assistance needed by the project, project coordinator's name and address and any other comments. For example, a listing for Independence County, Arkansas, lists Jerrie L. Townsend of Broken Arrow, OK who is working on "School Records of Independence County, Arkansas", a transcription of common school registers 1900-1903 from an original manuscript found in the papers of Oscar Theodore and Vernia Mayhue Jones, both teachers.

If you're interested in starting some kind of abstracting or indexing project, the May 1991 issue of Professional Genealogists of Arkansas, Inc. Newsletter has an article about starting a project. For a copy of that issue, send $2 to PGA, PO Box 1807, Conway, AR 72032. [PGA is not just for professionals (researchers, teachers, librarians, archivists and the like) but also designed to help intermediate and advanced researchers interested in Arkansas. PGA publishes a bi-monthly newsletter and dues are $12 for six issues.]

Even if you aren't involved in a project right now, you may edit a journal that would serve as a perfect place to publish a project, or selected abstracts from a project. Copies of the projects registry will be available from NGS in varying formats - published in the Digest (as mentioned above) or on computer electronic bulletin boards or on paper or diskette. Write NGS for more information about obtaining a copy of the complete directory.

Submitted by Pat Lape Bennett, who states this is from an inventory found in the loose papers at Laman Library and appears to have been done about 1957; Suzanne Jackson, 1604 Wewoka, North Little Rock, AR 72116, is trying to locate the names of persons buried in unmarked graves. The 1870 Formula For Date of Birth
If the tombstone of a person reads, died birth instead of counting backward.

Looking here and looking there
Looking almost everywhere,
Hunting her and hunting him,
Hunting every one of them.

I.G.I. and microfiche
Can't decide which one is which
Looking at the census rolls
For all of them the bells did toll.

Seeking greats and great greats, too,
Maybe finding just a few,
Can't give up, they must be there
Wish they knew how much I care

Sitting here with bleary eyes
Heave another great big sigh
Why go one, why not just quit
I can't, so once more here I sit

Aching back and shoulders, too
Great grandpa, can that be you?
Look again, it must be him
Quit? Oh, that was just a whim.

The date, the place where he was born
And yes, he had a little farm
Try once more for grandma, too and finally I'm almost through

Well, maybe just a few names more
Before I walk out of the door

Let's see, this must be great Aunt Mae
It is, oh, what a happy day!

There's Uncle Jim and Great Aunt Lou
And this must be great grandma Sue
There's Bill, and Sam, and also Len
What a great day this has been.

What was that you just now said?
Am I crazy in the head?

Oh my, no, I'm looking for
The key to open up the door
To the past and give a hint
To who they were and where they went,

And though I'll never find them all,
Trying to has been a ball.

So once again I'll try to find
Who they were, what deeds they signed,

When they left their old home state,
What was their goal, what was their fate?
I'm working very hard you see,
Hunting for my own ancestry

So once again I sit and stare
And --oh, my gosh, that's granddad there.
You'll excuse me I am sure
For once again I feel the lure
To write the age, the date and name,
And find the state from whence he came.

Our Scott family are of Scotch-Irish descent and probably originally from Scotland. They later most likely migrated to Ireland, although as yet we have no proof of this.

Where the Scotts landed in the new world (USA) is not known at this time, but we pick up their trail in Wayne Co., Tennessee, in 1821, where we find ancestor Samuel S. Scott was born. Samuel married Nancy (last name unknown), a South Carolina girl, and they continued to live in Tennessee where two children were born to them. These were Rody, born ca 1842, and James, born ca 1846.

We next find our Scotts in Pope County, Arkansas, in 1850. By this time, a third child, William Taylor Scott, had been born in 1848 in Arkansas. We must conclude that the family moved to Arkansas ca 1847 before William was born.

In 1860 the family was still in Pope County where three more children were born. We do not find the family listed in 1870, but suspect they had moved to Van Buren Co., Arkansas.

We find Samuel and Nancy again in 1886, in Searcy Co., Calf Creek (Twp.), Ark., and no children are listed with them. Since there is no 1890 census, we do not find them again until 1900, although S. S. Scott is listed under 1890 property tax in Calf Creek Township, Ark.

In 1900 we find Samuel and Nancy listed twice in Searcy Co., Ark. First they are listed alone, and then listed again with two granddaughters living with them. Both listings are in Calf Creek Township, Searcy Co., Ark. The granddaughters are Lily B., age 13, and Maggie L., age 11.

Samuel and Nancy (Lay?) died within a few months of each other (she in 1905 and he in 1906), and had been married for 65 years. Both are buried in Tucker Cemetery in Searcy Co., Ark.

There are many descendants of Samuel and Nancy still living in Arkansas, as well as California, Oklahoma, Alaska, Texas, and no doubt in many other states. We are proud to be two of their descendants.

SAMUEL AND NANCY SCOTT

Samuel S. Scott was born June 21, 1821, in Wayne Co., Tenn. He married Nancy (last name unknown) ca 1840, and they had two children while living in Tennessee. Rody was born ca 1842, and James was born ca 1846. Around 1847 the family moved to Pope County, Arkansas, where four more children were born to them. William Taylor born in 1848, John R., 1851, Rebecca P. in 1853, and Eliza J. in 1859. Living with the family in 1860 was Mary J. Jackson, age 14, relationship unknown at this time.

On Sept. 10, 1863, Samuel joined Co. D - 2nd Regiment, Arkansas Infantry Volunteers at Dardanelle, Ark. He enlisted as a private and was later promoted to corporal. Described as 42 years old, 5 ft. 7 in. tall, fair complexion, hazel eyes, and brown hair; occupation, farmer. Mustered into service Dec. 10, 1863 at Ft. Smith, Ark., by Major T. J. Wood for three years. In Sept. and Oct. 1864, he is listed as A.W.O.L. In Nov. 1864, he was listed as a deserter, but in Dec. 1864, he was found to be absent, sick at Lewisburg, Ark. On Feb. 12, 1864, joined from desertion at Clarksville. From the War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D.C., Oct. 24, 1866, Charge of Desertion removed. Absent Without Leave from Oct. 30, 1864, to Feb. 11, 1865.

In 1870 Samuel, Nancy, John and Eliza were living in Searcy Co., Ark. The other children had married and had homes of their own.
In 1880 Samuel and Nancy were living alone in Searcy Co., Ark. Samuel is under 1890 property tax, Calf Creek Township, Ark.

Twenty years later in 1900, Samuel and Nancy were listed in the census twice. First as living alone, and second as having two granddaughters living with them: Lily Belle DePriest, age 13, and Magie (Maggie L.) 11. Lily B. was born Nov. 22, 1885, Calf Creek, Searcy Co., Ark., and Maggie was born Feb. 1888, Calf Creek, Searcy Co., Ark. Parents were William Francis and Eliza Jane Scott DePriest.

The Mountain Wave newspaper, in November 1989, carried an obituary: Lillie Belle DePriest Ross, 103, of Marshall, died Nov. 21 in the Stone County Medical Center in Mountain View. She was born Nov. 22, 1885 in Sarcy Co. to William Francis and Eliza Jane Scott DePriest. She was a lifelong resident of Searcy County. She was a devoted Christian. She was a homemaker. She married William Claude Ross in 1903 and to the union II children were born. She was preceded in death by her husband; two sons, Blaine and James Austin; two daughters, Faye Hudson and May Ross.

Survivors include three daughters, Myrtle Hickman of Green Forest, LaVerne Beaver of Pangburn and Bonnie Maxwell of Leslie; four sons, Claude and Andy, both of Waynesville, Missouri, W. T. of Pangburn and R. C. of Hot Springs; 28 grandchildren and many great-grandchildren. Services were November 24 in the North Arkansas Funeral Home Chapel with Garland Brown officiating. Burial was in the Sulphur Springs Cemetery by North Arkansas Funeral Home. Pallbearers were her grandsons.

Lillie Belle married William Claude Ross and they had 11 children:
Blaine
James Austin
Faye, md. a Hudson
May
Myrtle, md. a Hickman
LaVerne, md. a Beaver
Bonnie md. a Maxwell
Claude of Waynesville, Mo.
W. T. of Pangburn
R. C. of Hot Springs.

Mr. Ross, Blaine, James Austin, Faye and May died before Lillie Belle - no dates. She died Nov. 21, 1989 in the Stone Medical Center, Mountain View, Ark. She was 103 years old. Funeral services were Nov. 24, 1989. Burial was in the Sulphur Springs Cemetery by North Arkansas Funeral Home.

No records have been located on Magie.

WILLIAM AND SARAH JANE SCOTT

William Taylor Scott, son of Samuel and Nancy Scott, was born Aug. 3, 1846, in Pope Co., Ark. Sarah Jane Tucker, daughter of Allen and Elizabeth Tucker, was born ca 1850 in Arkansas. William and Sarah Jane were married on Jan. 4, 1866, in Pope Co., Ark. To this couple were born: Samuel Maston, William Allen, James M., Henry Clay, Leander (Lee), Martin Van Buren, Lusta Lulla, Viola, Mary and Lawson J. Sarah Jane was said to have been sick a lot during her last pregnancy, and was thought to have had tuberculosis. Shortly after her baby was born, she must have known she was going to die, because she asked her oldest son, Samuel, and his wife, Mary, to take her baby and raise him as their own, which they did. She died shortly thereafter in 1892. It is not known where she is buried.

In 1894, William married again to Mary Treadwell, born July 13, 1869, in Una, Ark. Mary's parents were Isaac and Sarah Pig Treadwell. William and Mary had eight sons who were: William McKinley, Isaac, Dallas Sherman, George W., Simon, John, Robert and Arnold, born 1908, d. 1909. Not much is known about this second family. McKinley (Ken) married Nova Davis, George married Mary Davis, sister of Nova. Mary still living in Arkansas. Simon, who changed his name to Sam, married Phoebe and they live in Poplar Bluff, MO. Robert married Marie Alred and was living in Boring, OR, when last heard of in 1954.

William Taylor Scott died June 26, 1925, in Pope Co., Ark. Mary Treadwell Scott, called Big Mary by her step-grandchildren (not in derision but to distinguish her from their sister Mary) moved to Oregon to live with her youngest son, Robert. She also spent some time in Missouri with on Simon. On June 24, 1954, Mary died in Boring, Ore., and was shipped back to Arkansas. William and Mary are both buried near Dover, Ark. They were married almost 30 years.

SAMUEL MASTON AND MARY SCOTT

Samuel Maston Scott, son of William Taylor and Sarah Jane Tucker Scott, was born Jan. 18, 1867 in Pope Co., Ark. On July 31, 1886, he married Mary Jane Pate, daughter of John and __ Pate. Mary Jane was born April 12, 1868, in Arkansas. Sam and Mary had one child, Lora Ethel, and they also raised Lawson Joe, Sam’s baby brother.

When Sam and Mary lived in Arkansas they were farmers, and Sam also ran a still for the Government. Little is known about them when they lived in Arkansas. Because of Sam’s ill health, thought to be tuberculosis, they moved to Texas where the climate was hot and dry. They lived in Paint Rock, Abilene, and Seymour, before moving to Uvalde.

While living in Seymour, he was a pressman for the Seymour Cotton Oil Co. whose business was cotton seed oil products. Due to Mary’s ill health, they moved to Uvalde and bought a farm, but the soil was so poor they couldn’t make a living and lost everything. A granddaughter told me that they bought two farms with poor soil and lost them both. Sam wasn’t a man to give up, and at one time he worked for a railroad. He was a carpenter and also made beautiful things as a wood carver. He was a whistler and could play a jews harp.

Mary was a hard worker and a good cook. A great granddaughter remembers how especially good her chicken and dressing was. Mary was thought to be part Cherokee Indian but there is no proof of that yet. She would gather her grandchildren around her and tell them scary stories. They, of course, loved to hear her stories.

On Dec. 16, 1905, Sam became a member of the Woodmen of the World after all dues were paid. Should he die after his second year as a member, one thousand dollars would be paid to Mary J. Scott. In Dec. 1915, Sam had an insurance policy with North American Accident Insurance Co. for $800.00 to be paid to Mary J. Scott in case of his accidental death. He was described as 47 years old, 5 ft. 9 in. tall, weighed 148 lbs. On Nov. 2, 1916, Sam had a contract to carry the mail from Seymour to Red Springs, Texas, to be paid $799.50 for route 50136, from Nov. 1, 1916, to June 20, 1918. On Jan 1, 1923, Sam and Mary are listed in Precinct 1, County 3, State 22, when they each paid a poll tax of $1.75. He was 55 and she was 53 years old. This was in Taylor County, Texas.

Samuel bought property in the County of Uvalde known as the Grover Smith place, about 2 1/2 miles north of the town of Uvalde. Consisting of 105 acres, it was to be paid as follows: $1500.00 upon delivery of deed and title by seller T. J. Graves, and the execution of five promissory notes, each for the sum of $600.00, and to bear interest at the rate of 8 percent per annum. Fifty dollars in cash to be held in escrow by seller until final closing of this deal which is not to be later than Oct. 1, 1923. Signed June 11, 1923, S. M. Scott and T. J. Graves. Witness Clarence G. Miller.

Mary had some land left to her by her father John Pate in Searcy Co., Ark. She sold her land to William R. Goldsmith for $200.00 except for one acre and the John Pate residence. Listed on Warrant as: East 114 of the North West 114 - 40 acres. North West 114 of North East 114 - 39 acres, all of said forty except one acre including the John Pate residence near South East corner of said forty, and a part of the North West 114 of the North West 1/4 beginning at the North East corner of said forty running West 37 rods and 15 lengths, thence South East with the rock fence to South East corner, thence North to beginning, 8 acres more or less, all in Sec. 26, Township 15, Range 17, AR? containing 87 acres more or less. To have and to hold unto the said William R. Goldsmith, Section 25, and his heirs. Signed William R. Goldsmith. Witness my hand and seal on this 16 day of ____ , 190_. It was not signed by a Notary nor was the year filled in.

On Feb. 24, 1927, Sam and Mary paid taxes on property in Uvalde Co., Texas. The sum of the personal property tax was $15.34.

Mary died Sept. 1, 1940 and Sam didn’t want to go on living without her. He stayed with a granddaughter for a week and walked back and forth across the yard, or just sat and whittled and didn't talk much. Sam died three weeks after Mary on Sept. 22, 1940. They had been married 54 years. Both are buried in Uvalde Co., Texas.

Information was supplied by Rosaline
Carter, a granddaughter, and Betty Smith
Sparks, a great granddaughter, of Samuel and Mary Scott.

Their daughter, Lora Ethel, married a Mr.
Bates, and later married Sim Whitaker.

WILLIAM ALLEN AND LAVINIA SCOTT

William Allen Scott, son of William Taylor and Sarah Jane Tucker Scott, was born Nov.
1869 in Arkansas. Allen Scott, known as Al, made Lavinia Melton on July 23, 1887, in Searcy Co., Ark. Al was from Calf Creek, and Lavinia, known as Viney, was from Marshall, Ark.

In 1900 Al and Viney were living in Prairie Township, Searcy Co., Ark., with their four children. They were: Pearl, born July 1889;
Dotty, born 1892; Dennis Clell, born Oct.
1897; and Floie born 1899. Not much is known about this family at this time. Cemetery records show that William A. Scott, son of W. T. and Sarah Jane Scott, died Feb.
27, 1900.

Four years after Al died, Viney married
William P. Phillips, on July 19, 1904. Philips children by his first wife were: William M., John R., Jodo? Viney had two children with Phillips, Thomas and Guss. This family was living in Pope Co., Ark., in 1910, and later moved to Oklahoma.

Pearl married a Mr. Reed; Dottie married a Hinchey; Dennis Clell married Theo, and Floie married a Sharpe. Floe died Dec. 26, 1984, in Stigler, Oklahoma. She had one child, Raymond Dwight Sharpe. Still living in 1984 were Mrs. Dottie Hinchey of Quinton,
Oklahoma, and Dennis Clell Scott of Broken
Arrow, Oklahoma. Clell was a school teacher for many years in Oklahoma.

JAMES AND MARTHA SCOTT

James M. Scott, son of William Taylor and Sarah Jane Tucker Scott, was born ca 1873 in Arkansas. James married Martha Wallace on March 24, 1892, in Arkansas. Her parents are unknown at this time.

Very little is known about this family except that they had at least six children. They were:
Sidney, who died in childbirth in the Twenties, Hervey, Foy, Teddy, Chester and Robert.

This will have to conclude James and Martha Scott's history until more information is found about them.

HENRY AND FLORENCE SCOTT

Henry Clay Scott, son of William Taylor and Sarah Jane Tucker Scott, was born in July
1875, in Pope Co., Arkansas. He married
Florence Watson on Jan 23, 1896, in Searcy
Co., Ark. Florence was born in April 1876 in Ark. Her parents are unknown at this time. Henry and Florence were both from Murillo, Ark., at the time of their marriage.

Their first child is listed on cemetery records
as infant daughter of Henry and Florence
Scott, born Jan. 19, 1897, died April 11,
1898. Their second child, a son, was Halem?
D., born May 1898, and another son, Robert D., was born May 1900. Their family was living in Prairie Township in 1900. Other children were Doil, Roda and Adell.

A little story has been told about Henry and his hog by his brother, Lee. Lee went to see Henry early one morning and found Henry was sleeping in the kitchen. Lee looked and saw that Henry had a hog in bed with him.
Lee said, "Henry, have you sunk so low you now sleep with a hog?" "Henry said, "This ain't no hog. This is my pet pig." Lee said,
"Pig, hell, that's a damned hog you got in your bed." Seems as though Florence had banished Henry from her bed and he didn't want to sleep alone, so he brought his pig, or hog, in to sleep with him.

In a letter to his brother Lee, dated July 30, 1935, Henry told Lee that the county was ruined. That in June the Arkansas River overflowed and washed all the bottom land crops away, and then the dry weather had ruined the hills. He and Florence were in Alma, Ark., as they had been living in the bottoms and lost all they had in the flood. They were having to pay rent in town, and he didn't know how he was going to make a living, but they would get by some how. He said just he and Florence and Doil were at home now. The girls were both married, and "Roda got a good man, but Adell's ain't worth a dam." Adell had a fine boy and she called him Baby Lee.

In a letter to his brother Sam who lived in Texas, dated Nov. 17, 1937, Alma, Ark., Henry said they were all well and had a good crop that year. First good crop in 3 years. Made 7 bales of cotton and worked out their living. Nobody was at home but him and the old lady and one boy who was 18 years old. Henry said Florence looked 100 years old, and weighed 85 Ibs. He said he was as poor as Job's turkey, and his legs had played out on him. He hoped to live long enough to get the old age pension. He was tired all the time, and didn't care how short the time as with him as he didn't have anything to make him want to live. He wanted to go back to the country.

It is not known at this time when Henry and Florence died, or where they were buried. They were married at least 41 years.

LEANDER (LEE) AND NANCY SCOTT

Leander (Lee) Scott, son of William Taylor and Sarah Jane Tucker Scott, was born March 18, 1879, died Feb. 19, 1947 in El Centro, CA. Lee was born Marshall, Ark., and married Nancy Jane Weaver Aug. 20, 1899 in Searcy Co., Ark. Nancy Jane was born Dec. 18, 1883 Marshall, Ark., and died April 20, 1970 in El Centro, CA. She was the daughter of James and Nancy Steen Weaver.

Lee and Nancy lived in the Boston Mountains where five of their six children were born. 1. Lola Mae, 2. Lora Jane, 3. William Arlie, 4. baby girl only lived a few days, 5. Lether Francis. Their 6th child, Charles Evans, was born after they moved to Oklahoma.

Leander (Lee) and Nancy Scott were very young when they married and a lot of funny things happened to them. My Aunt Lora and my mother have told me the stories. One story was that they hadn't been married very long and the weather was cold, so Lee decided they would wallpaper the inside of their small cabin. They somehow got a bunch of old newspapers but there was one problem - they didn't have any paste, and couldn't afford to buy any. They had some sorghum molasses, so Lee said they would use the molasses for paste. They papered the room, lit the fireplace, and it was cozy and warm. But an odd thing started to happen. As they looked at the walls, they noticed the paper was slowly sliding down the walls. It was too warm for the molasses and it would no longer hold the paper up. My aunt said whenever her mom told the story in her later years, Grandad would stomp out of the room, as he would just as soon not remember it. I can almost picture the paper sliding down the walls, and what a gooey mess it must have been. My grandma was a funny lady without meaning to be. It's just that things happened to her that turned out to be funny. The Scotts were whistlers and I can still see Grandad walking down the street with Grandma 3 or 4 steps behind him. He walked fast, so she just let him go and caught up with him at the car. This was in their later years. Grandma was only 15 when they married, and one day in the afternoon she had been to an aunt's house to get some milk. It was about dusk, and Grandma thought she would give Grandad a good scare. She picked up a stick and hit the cabin hard. When she opened the door and went inside, she found Grandad on the floor. He had fainted from fright. The mountain people believed in "haints" and I guess he thought one was outside. I wonder if haints are what we call ghosts. These little stories are not what I call knee-slappers, but really are amusing. And, they are true.

One time Lee and Nancy were going somewhere and it was cold and started to snow. About dark, they decided they should stop and spend the night in a school house. During the night they kept hearing a noise but were too afraid to go outside and see what it was. At daylight they went to see what the noise was and it was a calf who had been walking around the school hours all night trying to get in where it was warmer. Another time their hogs had been sick and Lee had been dosing them with carbolic acid and whatever else he used. He had to go somewhere for the day and explained to Nancy what to do for the hogs. Nancy figured if a little medicine was good for the hogs, a little more medicine would be better, so she dosed the hogs. When Lee got back later that day, he found all of his hogs dead. Nothing has been reported as to exactly what Lee had to say about the situation, but knowing my granddad, you can bet it was plenty loud and long.

Lee put Lola on a horse as soon as she was old enough and by age 7 she was riding bareback. Nancy saw to it that the girls did their household chores, plus all of the kids worked in the fields as soon as they were big enough to handle a hoe. Once each year, Lee took the wagon and went down the mountain to the little town of Leslie. Occasionally he would take one or more of the kids with him. Nancy stayed home, as there was just too much work to be done. Lola, my mother, remembered that in Leslie was the first time she had seen a banana. My Aunt Lora said they wouldn't eat those old bananas because there were seeds inside. Grandad would park the wagon and they would spend the night in the blacksmith's shop. Next day they would buy flour, salt, sugar, coffee and other things they couldn't raise on the farm, and then head back up the mountain. My aunt said Arlie, who was the youngest child at that time, got the coal oil candy. I naturally had to ask what coal oil candy was and she said they bought coal oil for their lamps and put it in a container with a spout. To keep the coal oil from sloshing out of the spout on the way home, they would stick a piece of candy in the spout.

Before winter, Lee would dig a deep wide hole in the ground, separate it into bins and line the sides and bottom with straw. Then he would put potatoes in one bin, turnips in another, onions in another and so on. Then he would put another layer of straw and repeat above until the hole was almost filled. He would top the whole thing with straw and put a good sized mound of dirt over it. Small holes were left so they could reach in and get whatever they needed and then covered again. By doing this, they had vegetables most of the winter. When times were good, they also had a smoke house filled with meat from their own cattle and hogs. When times were bad, they hunted possums, rabbits, squirrels and whatever they could find. They also fished, and there was always something to do, even time to get into "trouble". Lola had been told never to touch the double barrel shotgun. She could use the other guns to go hunting, which she did. One day she sneaked the double barrel shotgun out of the house just to see if she could shoot it. She let go with both barrels and got knocked half way across the yard. Later Lee asked her if she had taken the gun. Now Lola had hoped her dad wouldn't notice, because she had sneaked the gun back into the house and put it back where it belonged. Lola knew she didn't dare lie to her dad, so she answered yes. Lee said did it knock you about 30 feet, and she said yes. Lee said "Lola, if you ever take that gun again, I'll give you a whipping you'll never forget." Lola said she knew he meant what he said and she said "believe me, I never touched that gun again." The above story was told to me by my mother, Lola, and she also told me about the vegetables. I have some of her story told by her on tape.

Lola hurt her forehead one day and it was bleeding pretty bad. Her mother came running, went into the barn and got as many corncobs as she could find and put them on the wound. It stopped the bleeding, but she had a small scar on her forehead for the rest of her lift. Another time she and Lora were out in the yard. Lola was using a hoe, chopping something. Lora, being nosey, got too close and was accidentally hit above one eye. She screamed and cried and someone was sent for "old" Doc Reves. He came and wanted to sew up the wound, but Lora yelled and cried and wouldn't let him. Had the cut been an inch lower, she would have lost her eye. She still has the scar and is now 87-1/2 years old (young). She neither looks nor acts her age.

Nancy was "snake bit" several times and got very sick. After a few times, she apparently became immune because the next time she was struck, it didn't bother her much.

The time finally came when they were financially able to build a nice 2-story house. Lola said she always hoped that someday they would have a white house with green shutters, and that was the color of their new house. They had fruit trees, plenty of vegetables, corn for eating, and corn for popping. They had hogs and cattle and just about everything they needed. There was timber on the land which was sold for barrel staves. They had a good life for a while, but then the cattle began to get sick. The cattle inspector came and inspected the cattle and said they had hoof and mouth disease. He told Lee the cattle would have to be destroyed, even the cattle that appeared to be healthy. It was an awful shock to Lee and the family, but their 350 head of cattle had to be killed. Most of the timber was gone, so there was nothing to do but sell the land and the house for what they could get and start over again. At one time, Lee bought the Tucker store, and tried being a business man. There were 3 rooms built on one side of the store and the family lived in the 3 rooms. They couldn't make a living running a store, so they sold it. Lee had a sister named Lusta who lived in Imperial Co., Calif., and he thought they should go to California. They would sell everything except what they needed, buy horses and 2 wagons and go first to Oklahoma where they had relatives. When they got to Oklahoma, they would sell the horses and wagons and buy train tickets to Calif. (There is a little controversy here. My mother said horses and 2 wagons. Her father drove one and his cousin drove the other. My aunt says there was only one wagon, so take your pick). Lee and Nancy's youngest child, a boy, named Lether Francis, was born in March, 1913 and the family started for Oklahoma in the Fall of 1913.

There is a lot more to Lee and Nancy's story - their trip to Oklahoma, their ups and downs after they got there. They didn't get to California until 1933 so they stayed in Oklahoma for 20 years. These are the people who my sister, brother and myself were raised with. My mother Lola, my Grandad and Grandma Lee and Nancy, Aunt Lora, Uncles Arlie, Lether and Charles. We love them dearly even though all are gone now except Aunt Lora.

My mother remembered her childhood in Arkansas very well, and talked from time to time about going back there. She could remember back to when she was 3 years old and had to take care of her baby sister. Her parents would take both kids to the field with them, spread a quilt on the ground and warn Mom not to let the baby get off the quilt. Being only 3 years old, she would sometimes forget and the baby would roll off the quilt and get dirt in her mouth. I suppose Mom got spanked now and then for not watching the baby more carefully. This was in 1903, and the baby was Aunt Lora Jane Scott, now Yates.

In August, 1990, Billie Benedict received a letter from her fourth cousin, Betty Smith Sparks, who lives in Texas. Betty enclosed three old letters and four postcards. One letter was written by Billie's great aunt Lusta Scott Shields to her sister-in-law, Mary Jane Pate Scott, wife of Samuel Maston Scott. It was written in 1922, and was from Poteau, Oklahoma. It tells about her two little girls having the chills that would go away and then come back. There was a lot of chit chat about what they had planted, and then she asked Mary Jane if "Sammy and Lawson ever got anything from Mother's estate" in Searcy County, Ark. She said: "Me and Sister (Viola) and Mary hasent ever got anything. Jim (James) and Henry got their part and sold it to George Scott for ten dollars a piece. George Scott was a half brother and he was living on the place and getting the use of it." She wondered if Sammy would write to George and see what he could do. She said she knew it wasn't much, but they might as well have it as him. She had written to George several times, but he wouldn't answer. To Mary Jane from Lusta, goodbye.

There was more to the letter, of course; but after reading the postcards the situation was more clear. Mary Jane wrote to her daughter, Ethel, that "Mary's man is dead. He died the 8th of March from pneumonia. Mary is at your grandpas. Write to her at Una, Ark." And she mentioned the name Louis.

Melba, sister of Billie Benedict, had found Mary Scott Lacewell and her two year old daughter living with her father and stepmother (William Taylor and Mary Treadwell Scott) on the 1910 Searcy Co. census. The Mary whose man had died was Mary Scott Lacewell. Her husband, Louis, died Mar. 8, 1910. She was back home with her father in April or May 1910.
MARTIN AND MARTHA SCOTT

In 1910 census Red River Twp., Searcy Co., Ark., Mart and Martha (Matti) were living there with their first five children and had been married 9 years.

Martin was killed in an automobile accident in Fort Smith, Ark. in 1946. Martha was said to have died of cancer in 1934.

Fonzo and Verbie had Elsie, Martin and Charles. Lonzo and Berlie had Freida, Evelyn, P. J., Leroy Alfred, Wesley, Leonard, Jeannie and Wanda.

This will have to conclude Martin and Martha's history until more information is found about them.

WILLIAM AND VIOLA SCOTT McEntire

Viola Scott, daughter of William Taylor and Sarah Jane Scott, was born May 3, 1885 in Ark., died March 19, 1955, Ft. Gibson, Okla. Married William McEntire Sept. 1, 1906, Searcy Co., Ark. Their children were Jeff, Raymond, John Henry, Andy, Roxie, Ruth, Verba Jane, Marie and Edna. Viola was called Sister and William was called Bill.

Not much is known about this family at this time except for John Henry. John Henry was a little person (midget) called Shorty. I remember seeing him once when I was a little girl and we were visiting relatives at Ft. Gibson. I remember seeing him play ball with some big people. He never married and lived with his parents until they died. He worked for the city, helping to dig ditches for water and gas lines. After his parents died, he lived alone for years, then went to Kansas to live with his sister, Ruth. He died in May 1983. Information on John Henry was supplied by Ruth Haas, granddaughter of Viola and William McEntire.

CHARLES AND LUSTA SCOTT SHEILDS

Lusta was born Sept. 15, 1887, Searcy Co., Ark., died Oct. 2, 1931, in Imperial Co., Calif. She married Charlie Sheilds in 1912, place not known. They had a son, Clarence, and he was their only child for many years. I don't know when they left Arkansas and came to California, but at some point in time Charlie "got" religion. He decided they should help populate the earth and within a short time they had four more children, who were Lorene, Russell and Clyde. There may have been another daughter. There was also a baby that died of malnutrition. Now Charlie didn't have to worry about food for himself, for he ate quite often with his parishioners, but Lusta and the kids were lucky if they had a pot of beans to eat. I don't know when the baby died, but Lusta was also sick a lot and probably died not long after the baby died. Charlie married at least two more times, and there is a question of how one of the wives fell out of the car they were in and died. No arrest was made, so it was assumed to be an accident.

Charlie visited a relative in Imperial County in the 1940s and after that no one seems to know what happened to him. Above information supplied by a relative of Lusta. I have recently found there was another girl named Pauline and that Clyde was a traveling Evangelist and had been stationed on some island, possibly Guam. Information on some of the children supplied by Mary Davis Scott, wife of George W. Scott, who was half-brother to Lusta.

JOHN AND MARY SCOTT McBRIDE

Mary Scott, daughter of William Taylor and Sarah Jane Scott, was born 1888 in Searcy Co., Ark. Mary married a Lacewell, date unknown, but in 1910 Van Buren Co. census she is listed as a widow living with her father and stepmother. Mary had a little girl Ida P., age 2. This was in April 1910. In June of the same year she married John A. McBride. She was 22 and he was 26 at the time. They are both listed as being from Murillo, Searcy Co., Ark.

According to a relative in Ark., Mary and John had: Pearl, Minnie, Viola, Buster, Fatty and Willard. She only knows the real name of Willard. The other boys names were nicknames. Two of the boys were run over by a car and killed. One of the boys killed was Buster, but she is not sure who the other boy was. She refers to the other boy, Shorty. She said Fatty, Pearl and Shorty did live at Wichita, but this was many years ago.

Information on the children of Mary and John McBride supplied by Mary Davis Scott, wife of George W. Scott, half brother to Mary.

LAWSON J. AND TENNESSEE SCOTT

Lawson Joe Scott was the tenth and last child of William Taylor and Sarah Jane Tucker Scott. Lawson was born Oct. 24, 1992 in Searcy Co., Ark. and died April 12, 1920 in Seymour, Texas. He was raised by his brother and sister-in-law Samuel and Mary Pate Scott, after his mother died. When Lawson was around 11 or 12 years old the family moved to Texas. Sam and Mary had a daughter, Ethel, and Lawson was treated like their own son. As Lawson got older, he would make a trip to Arkansas occasionally. Around 1913, he married Tennessee McBride and when she was pregnant with their only child, he left her and went back to Texas.

Tennessee McBride Scott was born Jan. 20, 1892 in Searcy Co., Ark., died July 145, 1970 in Clinton, Van Buren Cop., Ark. She was the daughter of Houston and Merle Jane Halmark. Tennessee had a son born Mar. 4, 1914, and named him Jesse.

Back in Texas, Lawson met a young woman named Velma Fuller, born May 29, 1894, died March 1971, and wanted to marry her. Apparently her father had heard that Lawson was married, but Lawson said his wife and baby had died. He convinced Velma's father he was free to marry, and on Aug. 19, 1916, they were married in Seymour, Texas. You can see from the above dates, Tennessee Scott was very much alive, and so was their son Jesse, but that didn't seem to bother Lawson. He and Velma had a baby girl that died, then in May 1918, they had Billie Lucille. Lawson was a farmer like most of the Scotts, and seemed to be doing all right. In 1920, when Velma was pregnant with their third child, Lawson took sick with typhoid fever, complicated by pneumonia, and died on April 12, 1920, Seymour, Baylor Co., Tex. He was 27 years, 6 mos. and 12 days old. Lawson was buried in the older cemetery in the Goldsmith lot, Seymour, Texas. The Goldsmiths were some relation to Mary Pate Scott.

A few months after Lawson died, Lawson Joe, Jr., was born. Velma Fuller Scott was an over protective, too strict, very jealous mother, and made her children's lives miserable. She was only around 4 ft. 9 in. tall and a heavy woman. She was so afraid her children would love someone else more than her. Velma married again to a man with 3 children and she made their lives miserable too, although they were married for over 50 years.

The kids grew up and Billie married a Mr. Glass and they had 4 boys. They all live in Texas except for one son. Lawson Jr. committed suicide at age 21. Lawson Jr. wanted to marry a girl but at first her father said no. Then after a few weeks, he told them they could marry. One day Lawson and the girl's father was in Lawson's car down by the park. Lawson got out of the car, went to the trunk, raised the lid. He took out a bottle and walked over to where the man could see him, but drank from the bottle. When the man asked what he was drinking, Lawson said, "Oh, just some carbolic acid”, and drank the rest of it. The man ran to a nearby store and told them to call an ambulance. Lawson was taken to the hospital but died in the hall before they could help him. The only known witness to this tragedy was the man who was with Lawson, Jr. He was too old and feeble to have forced Lawson Jr. to drink the acid. No one really knows why he killed himself. A broken love affair, continual interference by his mother, or something else. Anyway, the young man Lawson Joe Scott, Jr., was dead at age 21.

I want to thank Billie Lucille Scott Glass for most of the information in this story.
more but it would take up too much space. She has answered every question I have asked and has given me permission to use the information the way I want to, and it is all true. She did not know she had a half brother until I found her and we exchanged information. Billie and I are second cousins and I wish I had known about her years ago. We have never met in person, but we write to each other and are getting to know one another through our letters. (July 30, 1990)

JOHN AND LOUISA SCOTT

John R. Scott, son of Samuel and Nancy Scott, was born Jan.8, 1851, in Pope Co., Arkansas, and died Sept. 20, 1920, buried Osborn Cemetery, Searcy County, Ark. He married Louisa Weaver ca 1877. She was born Feb. 17, 1855, and died April 15, 1921, buried Osborn Cemetery, Searcy County, Ark. Louisa's parents were Jefferson and Louisa Matlock Weaver. In June 1880, John and Louisa were living in Calf Creek, Searcy Co., Ark., with their two-year-old daughter, Tabitha Jane.

In 1900 John and Louisa were still in Calf Creek and had added four sons to the family. Their names were: Lenard, born 1884; George D., born 1886; Frank B., born 1888; and John, born 1893. Tabitha had married Drury Jackson Sims on July 18, 1895, and they later moved to Oklahoma. Tabitha and Drew had Lottie; Allie; Elvira; Clara (died age 16); Beaulah; Audie; Claudie; and Carl Raymond who married John Ann Glad. Nothing more is known about John and Louisa Weaver Scott at this time.

Tabitha was born March 15, 1877, St. Joe, Ark., and died Nov. 6, 1948, in Muskogee, Oklahoma. Drury was born in 1877 in Arkansas, and died May 7, 1935, in Tahlequah, Oklahoma.

By 1910, Lenard B. had married Anna, and they had a daughter, Ola, who was 2 months old. George D. was married to Rutha and they had Beelie, age 4, and Urchin, age 2. Frank B. married Eura and they had Jell?, age 10 months. Nothing further is known about John. Rutha Scott, wife of George D., was born Nov. 11, 1887, and died Dec. 3, 1910. She is buried in Snowball Cemetery, Searcy Co., Arkansas.

Louisa Weaver Scott was an aunt of my grandmother, Nancy Jane Weaver Scott, and John R. Scott was an uncle of my granddad, Lee Scott. It is not known at this time where John and Louisa Scott died, nor where they are buried -- probably somewhere in Searcy County, Arkansas.

Eliza J. married William Francis DePriest and Rebecca may have also married John M. DePriest. 1900 Searcy Co., Calf Creek Twp., census shows John M. DePriest, b. Jan. 2860, md.10 yrs.; Becky DePriest, b Dec. 1857. No children listed.

General guidelines for submitting queries:
1) Queries are limited to members only
2) Please submit no more than one query per calendar year
3) Keep the query to approximately fifty words.
4) Neatness counts! If possible, type, double spaced. Otherwise print legibly, leave a space between each line.
5) Capitalize Surnames.

Remember the 4 W's:
Who - Give complete names of interest.
What - What do you want? Keep it short and to the point.
Where - Give a locality/residence in Arkansas.
When - Give a time period

Since we always work with a large backlog of queries, we strive to print them in the order in which they are received. It may be several months, however, before your query appears. We do use all queries received a calendar year before the end of that year. It simplifies the work of the all-volunteer staff of this publication if you send your queries with your membership fee, to the Arkansas Genealogical Society, PO Box 908, Hot Springs, AR 71902-0908.

The following are reviews of books acquisitions of the Arkansas Genealogical Society. The Society expresses its appreciation to the authors and contributors. In ordering copies of these books, please remember to say you saw the review in this publication! Also included are announcements of new books we felt would be of interest to our members, which have come to our attention.

GENEALOGICAL ABSTRACTS, REVOLUTIONARY WAR VETERANS, SCRIP ACT 1852 by Margie Brown, 3005 Phyllmar Place, Oakton, VA 22124, hard cover, on archival paper, 560 pages, with a complete index. $60.00 postpaid. This book covers 1689 files concerning men who served in the Virginia Continental Line, Virginia State Line, Virginia State Navy and Continental Navy. The records are from the final Act passed by Congress in August 1852, affecting previously awarded but unsatisfied bounty land claims for Revolutionary War service. All genealogical information has been abstracted, with a descent chart prepared. The charts usually indicate the Virginia Co. of residence for the veteran at the time of his service, and later court documents show the areas where his family members have migrated. A genealogical gold mine of information on the families of approximately 800 Virginia Revolutionary War veterans. (BJM)

CEMETERY INSCRIPTIONS IN SOUTHWEST ARKANSAS, Volume II compiled by John Purnell Frazier, 611 Cypress Street, Pittsburg, TX 75686, soft-cover, 185 pages, surname index. $19.00 postpaid. Inscriptions from the following 16 cemeteries located in Southwest Arkansas are included in this publication: Columbia Co. (Atlanta Baptist, Atlanta Methodist, Christie's Chapel, Owen, Stewart-Walkerville, and Western Cemeteries); Lafayette Co. (Conway Historic State Park, State Line, and Walnut Hill): Miller Co. (Enon and Olive Branch): Union Co. (Centerpoint (Old), Friendship, Lisbon, New Hope, and Shiloh). These inscriptions are arranged as buried, by row, rather than alphabetically. In some few instances, obituaries appearing in newspapers for persons listed have been added. (BJM)

FORSTER FOSTER AND THEIR ROYAL DESCENDANTS OF ENGLAND 823 AD., VIRGINIA 1635 AD., USA 1990 AD., compiled by Gerneva Foster Dennis, 2625 N. 6th St., Abilene, TX 79603, hard bound, 371 pages, full name index, $35.00 postpaid. Published following 13 years of research with information taken from Archival and County records with documentation of sources. Richard Foster, immigrant, came to America from England in 1635. He descended from Gilbert de Buckton and his son John Forster who was a forester for the Bishop of Durham in 1242. Richard Foster was also, a royal descendant of King Henry I and William the Conqueror. Over 1700 royal descendants are named in this book and all descend through one of the two sons of Richard Foster: Robert Foster d. 1715/16 Essex Co., VA and/or John Foster d. 1733/34 Essex Co., VA. Descendants will find much of interest in this compiled genealogy of this Foster/Forster family. (BJM)

MONTGOMERY COUNTY, AR: OUR HERITAGE, Volume II written by the people of Montgomery Co. and sponsored by the Montgomery County Historical Society, PO Box 520, Mount Ida, AR 71957, hard bound, 550 pages, full name index, $40.00 plus $4.50 postage and handling. Volume II is a sequel to Montgomery County: Our Heritage which was published in 1987. Volume I contained county, community, school and church histories which are not repeated in the new volume. This second Volume contains 415 family histories, war stories, "I Remember When", "The Way it Was", memorials and tributes, over 600 photographs as well as other interesting county history items. This new volume has been published with an expanded index for Volume 1. The pages therefore begin with 670a. In addition, there is a complete Index for Volume II, over 21,000 names and places. Together, these comprise one of the most complete histories written on any Arkansas county. (BJM)

INDEX OF OBITUARIES Appearing in The Arkansas Gazette July 1, 1990 to December 31, 1990 by Oscar G. Russell, CAE, 506 Loop Road, North Little Rock, AR 72116; 352 pages, spiral binding, $25. What a wonderful idea! Some researchers in the coming years are going to be very excited about finding Mr. Russell’s indices. (A first volume for the first half of 1990 was reviewed in our March 1991 issue.) With no access to any sort of index for our Arkansas state vital records, these volumes will be very important for family historians. The books present the material both in alpha order by name and by city name. The ages of the deceased persons are given and the Gazette citation. Attention librarians: these volumes will be useful for researchers seeking statistical material.

More good news from Mr. Russell: INDEX OF OBITUARIES Appearing in The Arkansas Gazette January 1, 1960 to December 31, 1960, 288 pages, spiral binding, $45. (Deaths are in alpha order by surname.) More of this wonderful resource. Too many good words cannot be said about the importance of this compilation. Now, if we can just lock Mr. Russell in a room for the next 20 years or so with his computer and microfilm of the newspaper, we’ll really have a resource that will be the envy of the genealogical community. An index to the deaths in 1925 is underway and virtually ready for publication and compilation of the current year is an on-going project. Local historians may want to contact Mr. Russell for a special extraction of the deaths in a particular town and we’re hoping he will maintain an active database of his material so we might pay for surname extractions in addition to purchasing his books. MARRIAGE RECORDS OF THE CITY OF FREDERICKSBURG, AND OF ORANGE, SPOTSYLVANIA, AND STAFFORD COUNTIES, VIRGINIA, 1722-1850 Compiled and edited by Therese A. Fisher. Published by Heritage Books, Inc., 1540 E. Pointer Ridge Pl., Suite 300, Bowie, MD 20716. Soft-cover, 267 pages, indexed, $21.50 plus $3.00 shipping. Four political jurisdictions are included in this volume: Spotsylvania County, Stafford County, Orange County, and the independent city of Fredericksburg. Marriages recorded in this volume are listed in alphabetical sequence. The author has included in the documentation of the marriages, ministers’ returns, marriage bonds, some newspaper notices, and in the case of Stafford, marriages implied from early land deeds, family Bible records, and cemetery records, as well as the marriages recorded in Overwharton and St. Paul’s parishes. Also included are minister’s returns from the records of Jeremiah Chandler, Baptist minister who presided over Piney Branch Church in Spotsylvania County. All brides are indexed separately. This collection of marriage records will provide excellent research material for those with roots on the banks of the Rappahanock River. (BJM)

INMAN-CARDEN-WILSON and WEAVER 1820-1991 Two small booklets published on these families by Alice Faye Weaver Brown, 511 West 10th, PO Box 400, Stroud, OK 74079. If interested in these family names, contact compiler concerning availability of the booklets. (BJM)

CHEROKEE BY BLOOD Records of Eastern Cherokee Ancestry in the U. S. Court of Claims, 1906-1910, Volume 6 by Jerry Wright Jordan, 490 pages, indexed, paper, $25.00 plus $3.00 shipping per order. In 1904 the Eastern Cherokees won a million dollar judgment against the U. S. because of its violations of the treaties of 1835-36 and 1845. The payments were to go to all living persons who had been members of the Eastern Cherokee tribe at the time of the treaties, or to their descendants if they were deceased. Over 46,000 people filed claims. This series of volumes presents detailed abstracts of affidavits by the applicants, their families and friends. Since most of the applications were descendants, and had to prove their descent, the quantity of genealogical information in these volumes is impressive. A random check reveals a number of applications filed from applicants living in Arkansas; among them Katie Acorn; Ice Waine, and Tom Eli of Evansville, AR; Mattie S. Early of Snyder, AR; John Middlestriker of Uniontown, AR; Jane Dias, and W. T. Spears, both of Malvern, AR, and others. Although the applicants had to have Indian ancestry, the majority were nominally white; a significant number of blacks are also included. Volume 6 covers applications 13261 to 16745, published by Heritage Books, Inc., 1540-E Pointer Ridge Place, Suite 300, Bowie, MD 20716. (BJM)

GUIDE TO SOURCES OF INDIAN GENEALOGY by Charles Butler Barr, 1633 Claremont, Independence, MO 64052. In the March issue of AFH, we reviewed an instructional booklet on the Choctaw-Chickasaw Citizenship Court by this same author, only to find that pamphlet is included as a portion of this larger guide to sources of Indian genealogy. Mr. Barr has been a volunteer advisor at the Kansas City, MO branch of the National Archives and developed this and other guides due to the numerous questions he encountered concerning Indian research. In his guide, Mr. Barr furnishes a brief description of each source record included, setting forth characteristics such as approximate time periods and geographic locations; form of record; nature of data which can be expected to be derived: names, ages, etc.; whether lists are numerically or alphabetically arranged, whether indexed, etc. An excellent tool to begin Indian research. The guide is available for $20.00 plus $2.00 shipping charges, from the author at the above address. (BJM)

SOON I WILL BE GONE Stories collected by Susan Whelan from seniors at Mims Manor, Ojai, CA, 8-1/2 x 7, paper, 62 pages, this book is the product of a four month story telling group at Mims Manor, a residential facility for seniors. The first two stories are related by Grace Williams born in Arkansas in 1894. A gift of Mrs. Millicent Schreiber, 38 Heather Way, Ventura, CA 93004. (BJM)

INDIAN RECORDS, CHOCTAW NATION, INDIAN TERRITORY, FINAL ROLLS, VOLUME I (Choctaw by Blood), by Arlene LeMaster, soft-cover, 97 pages, surname index, $22.00 postpaid. Information was compiled from the records of the Final Rolls of The Five Civilized Tribes. Over 4,000 roll numbers are listed in each book with name, age, sex, degree of Indian blood and Family or Census Card number. An explanation of this enrollment is included, as well as an application form and instructions for obtaining your Certificate of Degree of Indian Blood. We in Arkansas, who have so many inquiries concerning ancestors "with Indian Blood", are delighted to see this volume concerning the Choctaw tribe and their applications to the Dawes Commission during the enrollment period 1899 to 1906. And anyone who has attempted to read through the National Archives Microfilm Publication M1186, will appreciate the printed index. Order from: Family Heritage Resources, PO Box 477, Poteau, OK 74953. BEGINNER'S GUIDE TO FAMILY HISTORY RESEARCH, Revised Edition, by Desmond Walls Allen and Carolyn Earle Billingsley - available from Research Associates, PO Box 122, Bryant, AR 72022, $5.00 plus $1.50 postage. This book grew out of the authors' need for an accurate, succinct textbook for classes and workshops on family history. The emphasis of the book is on genealogy within the context of family history - placing ancestors within groups of people with whom they interacted in the historical time period of the events. Source identification is crucial and many examples are presented. The initial edition of the book was excellent, however, with guidance from Helen F. M. Leary, a renowned genealogist, some improvements were made for this edition. The March issue of National Genealogical Society Quarterly carried Mrs. Leary's rave review of Beginner's Guide.... Most recently, Brad Steuart of American Genealogical Lending Library has contacted the authors of the book and is negotiating publication rights. (The price through AGLL will be $5.95 plus postage.) This book is perfect for teachers and is extremely useful for even advanced researchers. (Comprehensive index and resource list.) (BJM)

CLEVELAND CENTENNIAL 1990 by Terri York - available from Penny Pincher Printing, PO Box 1172, Conway, AR 72032, 80 page, $6.00 plus $2.50 postage - is an interesting pictorial history of the Cleveland community in northern Conway County. The book was originally prepared for Cleveland's Centennial Celebration, May 1990. The book... contains reprints of newspaper articles, photos of structures and people, reminiscences, and family history information. Anyone with connections to the community will definitely enjoy the material and it might serve as an inspiration for other communities as a lasting reminder of a historic celebration. (No index.) (DWA)

OUR VALLEY: Happy and Cadron Valleys, Faulkner County, Arkansas, by Carnella "Connie" Weir Hall - available from PGA, PO Box 1807, Conway, AR 72032, 178 pages, $23 softbound, $28.50 hardbound. Our Valley is a warm, personal, local history of a small area of Faulkner County, Arkansas, written by an interesting woman with deep roots in the area. Personal memories, interviews with older settlers, and research in primary and secondary source material were combined with photographs, maps and facsimiles of pages from the 1900 federal census schedules to produce this book. Chapters include Pioneer Life, Social Life, Happy Valley Families, Cadron Valley Families, Cemeteries, and an appendix with maps and other material. This is the kind of book that could only have been written by a person with a keen memory and inquisitive nature, coupled with the dedication to preserve the priceless local and family history of a small community. Many of the residents of the area have moved away or died and their descendants are scattered all over the United States. Those who remain and the descendants interested in their heritage will be delighted to find this work. (Full-name index.) (DWA)

VIRGINIA COUNTY RECORDS, Volume 1: Spotsylvania County 1721-1800 edited by William Armstrong Crozier - (576 pages, hardbound, $35 plus $2.50 postage) is available from Genealogical Publishing Co., 1001 N. Calvert St., Baltimore, MD 21202. This is a basic book in Virginia genealogy first published in 1905, reprinted in 1955 and now again in print, thanks to GPC. The book contains abstracts of courthouse records: will books, marriages, guardians' bonds, and deeds. (Full-name index.) (DWA)

A HISTORY OF ROWAN COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA by Rev. Jethro Rumple, - (434 pages, hardbound, $30 plus $2.50 postage) is available from GPC (see above). First published in 1881, this county history contains information about original settlers, county organization, the courthouse, Indian wars, churches, the Revolutionary War, family histories, the War of 1812 and a roster of Rowan County's Confederate soldiers. This book will be of interest to researchers interested in western North Carolina, much of which was originally Rowan County, and eastern Tennessee. (Full-name index.) (DWA)

HISTORY of Laclede, Camden, Dallas, Webster, Wright, Texas, Pulaski, Phelps and Dent Counties, Missouri by Goodspeed Publishing Company (1889), is available in limited supply from Southern Historical Press, PO Box 1267, Greenville, SC 29602 (write for availability and price, 1219 pages plus 107 pages of full-name index, hardbound). How often have we been thankful to Goodspeed for the hints and information we needed to send us to the right primary sources? While Goodspeed reprints are available in libraries, a researcher with a personal copy can gain so much more from reading county history material and biographical sketches about many settlers, forming a picture of the events which shaped an area of interest. In a library setting, we are tempted to photocopy a known ancestor's biographical sketch and miss those clues found in sketches relating to allied and associated families. Due to the limited quantity available of this reprint, researchers are advised to order as soon as possible. (DWA)

HISTORY of Missouri Embracing an Historical Account of The Counties of Ste. Genevieve, St. Francois, Perry, Cape Girardeau, Bollinger, Madison, New Madrid, Pemiscot, Dunklin, Scott, Mississippi, Stoddard, Butler, Wayne and Iron, by Goodspeed Publishing Co. (1888), available from Southern Historical Press, PO Box 1267, Greenville, SC 29602, (1,215 pages, full-name index, $22.50 plus $2.50 postage.) More than 1,878 biographical sketches are included in this volume and the index contains over 27,000 names! Again, these Goodspeed reprints are invaluable resources. Don't overlook the importance of studying other people with whom your family was associated in 'mug' books like Goodspeed, even if your ancestors aren't listed. (DWA)
James J. Johnston, 2333 East Oaks Drive, Fayetteville, AR 72703, has contributed two new books about Searcy County of interest to family and local historians: SEARCY COUNTY, ARKANSAS TO 1850 by James J. Johnston, (available from the author - 33 pages, softcover, $5.00), is the expanded version of a talk given to the Searcy County History Group 28 September 1989, about a such interesting Searcy County topics as a Spanish Land Grant, comments by an Indian agent, the Mexican War, Tutt-Everett feud and other aspects of life in the hills. It's a valuable compilation with a good bibliography and an index. SHOOTIN', OBITUARIES, POLITICALS; EMIGRATIN', SOCIALIZIN', COMMERCIALIZIN', AND THE PRESS: NEWS ITEMS FROM AND ABOUT SEARCY COUNTY, ARKANSAS 1866-1901 by James J. Johnston (420 pages, softcover, $34.50), is a wonderful resource covering the title topics. Newspapers can be such revealing sources for family and local historians, but they are time-consuming and tedious to search. This compendium of material renders that source accessible to those interested. There is a full-name, subject, place index. Mr. Johnston, a retired diplomat, has also found time to start publication of a newsletter about Searcy County families, Searcy County Ancestor Information Exchange. It is directed at those folks interested in north central Arkansas, Searcy County in particular, for genealogical and/or historical purposes. It contains queries, articles and interesting tidbits about the region. Subscriptions are $6 for six, bi-monthly issues. We are also indebted to Mr. Johnston for his contribution to the last issue of The Arkansas Family Historian of an article on north central Arkansas' War Between the States era Peace Societies. INDIANA SOURCE BOOK V, compiled by Rebah M. Fraustein, published by the Indiana Historical Society, available from the society at 315 W. Ohio St., Indianapolis, IN 46202, (375 pages, softcover $15, hardcover $25). The publication includes material from the 1982 through 1984 issues of The Hoosier Genealogist. It includes transcripts of original county, church, Bible and cemetery records and passenger lists. This volume and its predecessors should be of tremendous value to Indiana researchers. (full-name index) (DWA)

ENCyclopedia Of AMerican Quaker GEnEALOGY: Volume 1, North CaRoLina, by William Wade Hinshaw is available from Genealogical Publishing Co., 1001 N. Calvert St., Baltimore, MD 21202, (1,200 pages, softcover, $75 plus $2.50 postage). The monthly meeting records of the Society of Friends are some of the best-kept religious records available to genealogists. Sometimes, these meeting records are the only records available on this sect as they did not routinely record their data in civil records. The records document births, marriages, deaths and migrations from 1680 through the early 1930’s. All six volumes of this series have been out of print for some years and this reprint of Volume I is certainly welcomed. (full-name index) (DWA)

EARLY HISTORY OF PIKE COUNTY, ARKANSAS: The First One Hundred Years, was compiled and published by Pike County Heritage Club in 1978 and reprinted by Pike County Archives and History Society (PO Box 2384, Murfreesboro, AR 71958) in 1989 (262 pages, hardbound, $12.00). Topics in the book include the early history of the area, the communities, and "Memories"
(reminiscences by residents). Maps and photos enhance the text and there are full-name and place name indexes. (DWA)

Note: Researchers interested in Pike County, are also directed to a new quarterly Newsletter, Pike County, Arkansas, edited by David L. Kelley, PO Box 249, Brandywine, MD 20613. The professionally compiled newsletter contains articles and queries about Pike County residents. (DWA)

THE LIFE AND WRITINGS OF MOSES FISK by Tim Barlow (available from Curtis Barlow, Route 1, Box 98, Crossville, TN 38555, 234 pages, hardbound, $16.95) is not only a history of the Fiske-Fisk family but a biography of Moses Fisk, educator, surveyor, author, lawyer, merchant, farmer and pioneer resident of Tennessee. Three documents written by Fisk are included: an 1816 discourse on the history of Tennessee, an abolitionist pamphlet and an 1815 account of an archeological site. In addition, several of Fisk's letters have been transcribed and included. The book is of interest to Fisk descendants throughout the United States as Moses Fisk's ancestors as well as his descendants are included. The historical material on the founding of Tennessee is very interesting. (full-name index) (DWA)

LINEAGE CHARTS AND FAMILY GROUP SHEETS, Volumes I and II have been published by Hempstead County Genealogical Society, PO Box 1158, Hope, AR 71801. Each volume is $12, and each contains 198 pages. These books contain reproductions of pedigree charts and family group sheets submitted by members of the society with southwest Arkansas ties. Each volume has a surname index to all the names on the charts. (DWA)

HEMPSTEAD COUNTY, ARKANSAS CEMETERIES, BOOK 2, published by Hempstead County Genealogical Society, PO Box 1158, Hope, Arkansas 71801. $15. softbound, 215 pages, full name index. Book 2 of Hempstead Co. includes cemeteries canvassed near Hope, DeRoan Twp., plus Forrest Hills, Briant, Harmony, and Clark in Nevada County. The historical background of the cemeteries and location map is included. Hempstead County was one of the original five counties when Arkansas Territory was formed in 1819 covering what is today an 11-county area of the state. Many abandoned graves and graveyards are listed, and deed records have been searched to determine, if possible, the donor or owner of the land used for the "burying ground." (BJM)

INDEX TO US INVALID PENSION RECORDS, 1801-1815, compiled by Murtie June Clark, 159 pages, indexed. Available from Genealogical Publishing Co., 1001 N. Calvert St., Baltimore, MD 21202 - $18.50 plus $2.50 postage. This book is a nearly complete transcription of a little-known account book kept by the General Accounting Office. It lists over 2,000 pensioners who had served in the Revolution and the frontier wars after 1873. Some death dates and transfers are shown in the records. The book lists supplementary information not found in the pension lists published by the War Department in 1813 and 1818. (DWA)
