2019 National Genealogical Society

by Jeanne Rollberg

Arkansas genealogy received nationwide attention in St. Charles, Missouri at the National Genealogical Society conference that attracted 1,900 attendees.

NGS featured the revised "NGS Research In the States Series: Arkansas" written by Lynda Childers Suffridge, a former AGS and NGS board of directors member. (Suffridge now serves on the board of the Friends of the Arkansas State Archives.)

The Tennessee Genealogical Society is hosting an event June 15, on the use of state Archives. It is being held at Pickering Center, 7779 Popar Pike, Germantown, Tennessee. Anyone interested in attending can register at https://www.tngs.org/event-3223365/Registration. Representatives from the Arkansas, Tennessee, and Mississippi Archives and/or Library will be presenting. Each state will present sessions on the basic functions, services and contents of their state archives. Additionally, there will be presentations on:

- Preservation of Documents
- Identification, Care and Management of Photographs
- Tracing Your African-American Ancestors

Lauren Jarvis from ASA will represent the Arkansas State Archives.
The Northeast Arkansas Regional Archives is seeking individuals to participate in Volunteer Day at the archives. Currently, volunteers are unfolding and processing court case files from the Walnut Ridge, Lawrence County Court Records Collection. The goal is to have those cases searchable in our database within the next year. Come and join the fun. For more information about volunteering, contact NEARA at northeast.archives@arkansas.gov or (870)878-6521.

The Arkansas State Archives is interested in you!

The Arkansas State Archives and Friends of the Arkansas State Archives are looking for eager individuals to help index county and state records. Work is done sitting down, alongside staff members, with gloves and masks provided. It takes place on Tuesday mornings from 9:00 to noon in a conference room at the Collections Management Facility on North Street in Little Rock where parking is more easily available than at the Archives. Come and join the fun.
